

Kimball Anderson and Tom Melsheimer Inducted Into The Lawdragon's Hall of Fame

JANUARY 5, 2024

Winston & Strawn partner Kimball Anderson and Dallas Managing Partner Tom Melsheimer were named among the 2024 class of The Lawdragon Hall of Fame inductees. This honor, reserved for attorneys who have dedicated their lives to the legal profession, is in acknowledgement of Kimball and Tom's enduring accomplishments and success.

Kimball Anderson's four-decade-long career delivering exceptional representation for public-interest and other clients has earned him a reputation as one of the nation's finest litigators and trial lawyers. Kimball has tried cases over a range of issues and focuses his practice on complex commercial matters, with specific prowess in consumer class actions, patent litigation, and antitrust investigations. The Lawdragon previously named Kimball among the 500 Leading Litigators in America for Complex Commercial Litigation, Class Action, IP, and Antitrust (2022–2023).

Tom Melsheimer—described as “one of the [country's] most sought-after trial lawyers,” and as a “celebrated storyteller” by American Lawyer publishers—has remarkably broad and extensive jury trial experience that includes civil cases involving patents, antitrust, securities fraud, product liability, breach of fiduciary duty, and energy and has tried criminal cases involving health care fraud, bank fraud, public corruption, and kidnapping. The Lawdragon previously named Tom among the 500 Leading Litigators in America for Trial Law (2022–2023), and on their list of the 500 Leading Plaintiff Financial Lawyers (2023). He has also co-authored an acclaimed book on trying cases before juries entitled On the Jury Trial.
