

Winston Associates Selected for Toyota's Counsel in Motion Program

MARCH 21, 2024

Winston & Strawn associates Drew Washington and Ashley Wright have been selected to participate in Toyota's Counsel in Motion Program. This highly selective program empowers promising mid-level associates with tools, opportunities, and relationships that they can leverage throughout their careers. Candidates completed a competitive application process and were selected based off their professional achievements, community involvement and service, and thought leadership.

Over the course of six months, participants will complete a series of programs that cultivate business insight, business and professional development skills, and mentorship opportunities. Other key aspects of the program include leadership workshops with Harvard Law School and SMU Cox School of Business, volunteer opportunities, and social networking events.

Less Than 1 Min Read

Related Topics

Diversity, Equity & Inclusion

Related Professionals

Drew Washington

Ashley Wright