Opened in 2003, Winston & Strawn's San Francisco office is located in the financial district, just down the road from the Bay Area's technology epicenter. Our team—now 25+ lawyers strong—keeps a finger on the pulse of the rapidly evolving financial services and technology sectors, and offers support across a wide spectrum of services, including antitrust/competition, commercial litigation and disputes, government investigations and compliance, intellectual property, labor and employment, mergers and acquisitions, and product liability. The San Francisco team works seamlessly with lawyers and departments across the firm's global network to ensure the highest quality service to our clients. With a culture that represents the Bay Area's innovative spirit, our lawyers are regularly honored with high-profile awards and frequently recognized by publications, such as Chambers USA, The American Lawyer, the Daily Journal, and The Recorder.

The entrepreneurial spirit we cultivate not only influences our work, but also our efforts to give back. Our attorneys and staff work side-by-side on community initiatives such as the Bar Association of San Francisco's Food From The Bar campaign, Cycle for Survival, and One Warm Coat. We also carry this sense of social responsibility into our office by investing into the recruitment and retention of diverse lawyers, as 71% of our attorneys in Northern California identify as women, racial/ethnic minorities, and/or LGBTQ+.

Another large contributor to our innovative culture is our Summer Associate Program. Each summer, law students work alongside partners and associates to assist clients in computer hardware and software, telecommunications, automotive and transportation, financial services, life sciences, and other innovative industries.

“Winston partners are invested in my career development, and I feel comfortable asking them questions. I also admire them and enjoy spending time with them.”

Drew Washington, San Francisco Associate
