With a particular focus on cross-border transactions, Paul regularly counsels public and private companies and investors on key strategic deals. His substantial experience includes M&A, equity capital markets, joint ventures, private equity, and venture capital investments.

Paul advises public and private companies and permanent capital investment vehicles, entrepreneurs, and other strategic investors on their key transactions across a wide range of sectors. Such transactions have included acquisitions, disposals, joint ventures, private equity investments (including acting for fundless sponsors), venture capital investments, initial public offerings, and secondary securities offerings on the London Stock Exchange (Main Market and AIM). He has particular experience in advising on special purpose acquisition companies (SPACs) and cross-border transactions.

Key Matters

Some of the experience represented below may have been handled at a previous firm.
